Re: Bautista v. 519 Central Park LLC, et. al.
Docket No. 22 Civ. 419 (CM) (JLC)
Letter Motion Requesting adjournment of Conference Date

Dear Chief Judge McMahon:

This firm represents the Defendants in the above captioned action.

This letter motion is written on consent of Plaintiff's attorney who joins in the request for an adjournment. There have been no prior requests for adjournment.

An initial pretrial conference is scheduled for Thursday, March 10th at 11:30 a.m. The parties would respectfully request a three-week extension of the conference date to March 31st or such date thereafter as this Court sets. The parties request an extension of the deadline to submit a scheduling order to two business days prior to the adjourned conference date.

In consulting on a case management plan, the parties have voluntarily exchanged information pertaining to the Plaintiff's claims and are actively involved in settlement negotiations. The parties would request a short window of time to complete its negotiations and potentially resolve the matter prior to engaging in discovery.

Respectfully,

Patricia Wetmore Gurahian
